Latest plastics personnel moves, including Engel, Davis-Standard, Milacron, DME, Mack Molding, BASF, DuPont and more.

Nancy Cefalo, a 14-year employee of Mack Molding, has been promoted to human resources director for the company's three Vermont manufacturing facilities. Cefalo replaces Kevin Dailey, who has served as Mack's HR director for 16 years, but has left to accept the new position of VP, human resources for Southwestern Vermont Health Care. Before joining Mack, Cefalo worked as a home health nurse for Manchester Health Services, in Manchester, Vt. Prior to that, she was owner/operator of a family restaurant, where she managed all operations, including human resources.
